Seek Annexation to Los Angeles.

At the meeting of the Los Angeles City Council on Monday the 19th inst., an ordinance was adopted calling an election to vote upon the annexation to Los Angeles of East Hollywood, Eagle Rock, Colegrove, Prospect Park, Ivanhoe, Tropic, Upper Garvanza, Hermon, Oak Hill, Shorb, Baird's Station and Rose Hill. Wednesday, February 20, 1907, is the date set for the annexation election and should the territory seeking admission be permitted to become a part of the city the area of Los Angeles will be increased by at least one-third, making that city one of the largest, if not the largest, in area, of any city in the world. This paper is glad to know that the people of Tropic and Eagle Rock have awakened to the fact that it is needful for them to become a part of an incorporated city in order to secure the many improvements that are necessary to the future growth and material welfare of those localities. We believe annexation to Los Angeles can be made a good thing for the territory proposed for annexation provided those who live in that territory take advantage of the opportunity to spend their good hard cash to make attractive improvements—otherwise annexation is likely to prove an expensive luxury. It is impossible to get good things in this day and age without paying something for them and if you become a member of an organization you are in duty obliged, and in this case, lawfully bound, to help defray the running expense of the machinery of government. The territory proposed for annexation will have to be cut up and sold off as town lots if the owners of the property expect to profit by annexation, as the bonding of Los Angeles for the Owens River water supply and the issuance of other bonds for municipal improvements as the city grows, will make the tax rate entirely too high for the land to be used for agricultural purposes. Annexation is a good thing if the people are prepared for it. Glendale will certainly profit by the annexing to Los Angeles of Tropic and Eagle

Rock as it will bring us in closer touch with the metropolis and give us the advantage of near-by improvements that will necessarily have to be made by our neighbors should they annex to Los Angeles. Glendale, by being incorporated a city of the sixth class, has a distinct advantage, as it can govern its own affairs at much less expense than it could were it annexed to Los Angeles.

Sawtelle City of Sixth Class.

Sawtelle has taken another step forward, its citizens having voted on Thursday the 15th to incorporate it a city of the sixth class. Incorporation for Sawtelle can be made a great blessing for that thriving little city providing the people there will take an interest in public affairs and assist their city trustees in procuring needed improvements. Glendale's city trustees might be able to impart some very valuable information to Sawtelle's new city dads along the lines of hard work without recompense or even appreciation on the part of some few whom the trustees have honestly endeavored to help. However, life is full of ups and downs and people are apt to judge hastily and unfairly of their neighbors' motives. Time only can convince some people of the error of their way and in some cases it takes both time and the grim reaper to cure some obstinate cases of "error."

Much credit is due Miss Jennie Miller, the editor of The Veteran-Enterprise, for bringing about incorporation for the town which she has labored so faithfully and effectively during the past several years.

The Los Angeles Express of the 24th inst., has the following to say regarding disincorporation: "Although it will be several weeks before the vote is taken, much enthusiasm is manifested by the opposing forces. King, the leader of the disincorporationists, says he has 250 votes promised for his side. Those in favor of remaining incorporated have made a canvass and claim they will defeat their opponents by a two to one vote.

Glendale Country Club.

On Saturday, the 24th inst., a permanent organization of The Glendale Country Club was perfected at a meeting held in the office of Sternberg Bros. & Howe. George Holman, L. C. Brand, J. F. McIntyre, Ezra F. Parker and A. M. Collins were elected a board of directors to serve until the regular yearly election is held.

Articles of incorporation will soon be filed with the Secretary of State and the club will in the near future purchase a building site and erect a beautiful and commodious club house.

With its present membership the organization will have a fund of $5000 to work on and it is expected this sum will be greatly increased in a short time by the addition of many new members, which will provide ample funds for furnishing the club house and beautifying the grounds.

Those who compose the membership of the club are men who believe in Glendale and are determined to advertise the city and valley in a substantial manner to the outside world.

The club is not a stock company, but is purely a social organization and each member puts up his membership fee of $50 without any expectation of deriving profit therefrom.

Another meeting of the club is to be held at three o'clock p. m. to-day the place of meeting to be the same as last week. The complete list of charter members will be given at this meeting and the committee on location of a building site will make its report.

To the untiring efforts of Geo. Holman and Dan Campbell is mainly due the successful organization of this club and they have offered to donate a lot providing the club is located in the Glendalia Park tract.

The L. A. Inter-Urban Railway Co. has replaced the open summer car on Fourth St. with car 83, a warm closed car, which is roomy and comfortable. Glendale citizens are duly thankful.

LIBRARY NOTICE.

The Glendale Free Library and Reading Room is open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from four to six o'clock.

FOLLOW THE LEADER.

"I have 225 votes—they will vote just as I tell them to—I told them how to vote and I know I will win."

The above is an extract from assertions made by the leader of the disincorporation forces. A grand leader, indeed—one to be proud of.

An Opinion Worth Consideration

I am absolutely apposed to disincorporation. It would be the worst step for Glendale that could be taken.—G. H. A. Goodwin, general manager Erkenbrecher Syndicate.

An opinion from a man of Mr. Goodwin's high business standing and keen perception is worthy of thoughtful consideration. The syndicate that Mr. Goodwin represents is the direct agency through which thousands of dollars are being invested in Glendale property and improvements.

And the news reaches us that Glendale is going to vote on the proposition to disincorporate. Heavens! And all this time we have been under the impression that Glendale was in California. Why do some people always want to get back in the "bresh?"—El Monte Gazette.

It is the same old story—"give some people an inch and they'll take an ell." We haven't any objection to the leaders of this movement going back to the "bresh," but we do strenuously protest against their dragging the progressive element back into the woods with them. We wish to inform those who do not understand this movement that the whole miserable affair was brought about by two or three would be dictators who by misrepresentation succeeded in bamboozling some of our best citizens into signing the petition under a misapprehension. The vote on this question on December 12 will tell just how many people there are in Glendale who would retard the growth of the town and resume their sleep from which they were awakened when the town was incorporated in February last.

If you want to sell or rent your property, you should list it with Mrs. Rehart, First National Bank Building, Brand Boulevard.

King, the leader of disincorporation movement, should be happy, as he is receiving notoriety sufficient to satisfy the appetite of a glutton for malodorous things, for which he is famous.

Mr. Voter, where do you stand—with those who are honestly and earnestly endeavoring to build up Glendale and make it a city to be pointed to with pride, or do you stand side-by-side with a man who is seemingly never happy unless he is making trouble for his neighbors and who brags of having instructed 225 people how to vote? Are you one of the people who have been instructed by this crank and trouble breeder?

Because everyone does not agree with everything you say, don't jump at the conclusion that the other fellow is no good and a fool. What a wonderfully busy person you would be if you did the thinking for the whole universe. Remember that while everybody may be cranks, you may have some peculiarities yourself. Your wisdom may be tinged with a little selfishness. Even Solomon himself was selfish in some respects.

If any section of Glendale should receive a set-back it would tend to hurt the city as a whole, therefore, if for no other reason, let us all pull together for the good of the whole community and eliminate all factional strife. We are all striving for the same end and it is impossible to build up one part of town by trying to injure some other section. So let's all pull together for the upbuilding of the entire community and we'll soon see our town growing at a more rapid pace.

The people of Glendale have many things to be thankful for, as the past year has been the most prosperous in the way of property sales and the construction of buildings that Glendale has ever experienced. Our people have reason to be thankful that they are living in one of the most beautiful and healthful spots on God's footstool, and they have reason to be thankful because they live in an enlightened community where there are churches and most excellent schools. Be thankful you are alive and in Southern California where blizzards are unknown, where the sun shines ten months out of twelve, and where the birds sing every day. Truly we should give thanks.

Turn Him Down

Already the finger of ridicule is being pointed at Glendale by neighboring towns, simply because two or three cranks were smooth enough to hoodwink some of our best citizens into signing a petition for disincorporating Glendale. We are all liable to make mistakes, but when we see our mistakes we should come forward like men and make restitution for any wrong we may have done.

Los Angeles papers quote trouble-breeder King as saying that he has promises from 225 voters that they will vote to disincorporate Glendale. Are you going to acknowledge this fellow your master, or are you going to turn him down? If you don't know this fellow, ask his neighbors about him. A great thing it would be for Glendale to have it published abroad that this fellow (and one or two others who haven't the manhood to come out in the open) are carrying the vote of Glendale around in their pockets. It is the duty of all decent citizens to come out and vote to repudiate this fellow's vile assertions.

San Fernando Town—The Valley
—Its Papers

San Fernando is coming to the front, its citizens have awakened to the fact that if they are to accomplish anything along material lines the town will have to be incorporated and a petition to incorporate San Fernando a city of the sixth class has been submitted to the county board of supervisors and a vote on incorporation will soon be taken. Following close upon the incorporation agitation a magnificent hotel has been built and things in general are "looking up" in our neighboring town. After laboring tenaciously for two or three years, Editor Crooks has at last succeeded in getting things started in the right direction and it is to be hoped that he may be able, through agitation in his bright little paper, to keep the dry bones astir. Keep up the good work, brother Crooks, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have done your full share in making a new San Fernando even if some of our mutual friends (?) the "bushwhackers," do keep up a constant fire at you from the underbrush.

Thanksgiving

We take this opportunity to thank our many friends for their generous patronage during this the Thanksgiving season.

Our greatest difficulty was to keep up our stock of goods so quickly were they depleted, and some of our deliveries were a little slower than usual, but everyone seemed to feel good natured about it and naturally we smiled too.

In the next few days we will perfect arrangements for another "BIG DAY" of Food Demonstration—pure food of course.

Great as was our last "at home," this one promises to far eclipse it, both in the nature of our display and in varieties of goods demonstrated.

We will make definite announcement next week.

A Day at Sea

Through courtesy of Mr. Geo. Mock, the cement contractor, Messrs. Chas. Sternberg, Mr. Emil Parker and the editor of this paper, were given a day's outing in Mr. Mock's neat little gasoline yacht. Mr. Mock's guests left Glendale on an early morning electric car and journeyed to San Pedro bay, where they were met by their host, who escorted his guests aboard his trim and staunch little launch which was immediately headed for the open sea. On land the weather was most unpleasant, there being a high wind which was blowing great clouds of dust making life miserable for those who were abroad.

The sea seemed rather rough at the start, but as the noble little vessel rode the angry waves like a cork under the perfect piloting of its master, the slight anxiety that was at first felt by Mr. Mock's guests, soon gave way to perfect confidence, and the entire party entered into full enjoyment of a most delightful trip.

At about three o'clock a. m. of this day, a party of six people had left San Pedro harbor in a small boat and as nothing had been seen of them, and as a high and very rough sea had been running at the time they left, it was feared the boat had been capsized and its inmates had been drowned. Mr. Mock took a course for several miles in the direction of Catalina island, when the launch was turned toward Newport, a constant lookout being kept for the vessel that had left the harbor at three o'clock. Shortly after Mr. Mock and his party left the harbor another party on board a much larger vessel left San Pedro in search of the party that was supposed to be lost, and the vessel that left the harbor last fortunately sighted the little vessel that left in the early morning, and none too soon, for the gasoline engine of the small boat had become disabled and it, together with its human freight, was drifting at the mercy of the rough sea, which was breaking over the vessel and threatening every moment to capsize it. The rescuing boat took the drenched and scared party of the smaller boat aboard and taking the helpless boat in tow, put back to San Pedro.

Mr. Mock and his party continued on their trip until they reached a point south of Newport, when the little boat was headed toward Huntington Beach and when within about one mile of shore the course was changed toward San Pedro at which place the party was safely landed at about six o'clock p. m.

During the voyage trolling lines were put out by Mr. Mock with the result that six large bonita and a 20-pound yellowtail were brought home as trophies of the day's sport.

Mr. Mock's boat is a new one, that is built after the pattern of the most successful launches in use on the Atlantic coast, the cost of the vessel being about $2000. Many of Glendale's citizens have been the recipients of Mr. Mock's hospitality aboard his fine little launch and all join in voting him a prince of good fellows.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sanborn, who recently moved to Glendale from Sumner county, Kansas, entertained old friends Tuesday at their home on A street, near Ninth. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dew, who are spending the winter months in Los Angeles. They were once neighbors in Polo, Ill., near Chicago, and are much charmed with Glendale.

Darktown Show and Cotton-ball

In a few days there will be issued a handsome sixteen page program advertising the Darktown show and Cotton ball to be given in the Glendale skating rink on December 12th.

There will be four thousand of these distributed through Glendale, Tropico, Eagle Rock, Burbank, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Colgrove, Compton and Prospect Park.

Nothing greater in the line of amusement has ever been attempted here, and under the able direction of Mrs. Claudia Hazen White this show promises to be the best as well as the greatest given in local circles.

In the minstrel part of the show there will be over thirty, with four end men, and Dr. Conrad as interlocutor with two others who are well able to assist him. Mr. H. Clay Seaman is at present business manager for Mrs. White.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER.

To honor the ninth wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Edgar W. Pack entertained in her beautiful new home, "The Priory," with an elegantly appointed dinner of seven courses. The color scheme of decorating being red and green, masses of glowing geraniums and the delicate greenery of ferns were employed with striking effect in drawing-room and library. In the dining-room the same lovely blossoms were used on the snowy damask, surrounded with asparagus plumosus. Cut glass and shining silver helped to carry out the idea of a wedding banquet. Dainty place cards of white and red helped carry out the general artistic effect.

Happy responses and appropriate toasts were given and dull care was thrown to the winds. With gay quips and bright jests the time was whiled away till the honored guests declared this to be one of the most charming affairs ever given by their bright and hospitable hosts.

MR. AND MRS. ANDERSSON ENTERTAIN.

One of the most delightful of weekend affairs on Saturday evening, November 25th, was a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cornelius Anderson in their lovely new bungalow home on Fourth and C streets.

Everything about the home suggests artistic taste and harmony, and graceful greenery intermingled with seasonable blossoms and the soft glow of many candles, added to the beauty of the rooms.

Prizes were awarded for the highest scores to Mr. H. P. Coker and Mrs. G. E. Williams. Consolations went to Mr. E. D. Goode, "to light him on his weary way," and to Miss Norah Louise Warner.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, who is a great favorite wherever she is known. She was assisted by Mrs. Mabel Hackman and Mrs. Walter C. Fraley. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

PLEASANT DINNER PARTY.

One of the pleasant Thanksgiving affairs occurred at the home of E. T. Byram, when the entire family of sons, daughters and grandchildren enjoyed a good, old-fashioned holiday dinner of several courses. The home had been decorated throughout with ferns and autumn leaves. The diningroom especially bespoke holiday cheer, smilax and blossoms being most effectively employed. In the center of the table a large pumpkin was filled with fruit, and grape-leaves on which stood glasses of fruit sherbet, marked the places. Covers were laid for sixteen.

THE UNIQUE CLUB.

Among recently organized social affairs in Glendale is the Unique Club, composed of twelve ladies of social prominence in local circles. The idea is to meet at the homes of the different members, each hostess to entertain with whatever game she chooses. The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. A. Monroe on Fourth street. The following week the club was entertained by Mrs. H. E. Smith on Mary street. This week they were handsomely entertained at the home of Mrs. Chas. Parker on M street.

OUR LARGEST TAX-PAYER

Believes in a Fair Trial and a "Square Deal" for Incorporation.
EDITOR GLENDALE NEWS.

Dear Sir:—For good and sufficient reasons (from my standpoint), I was opposed to the incorporation of your beautiful city and fought the project vigorously to a losing finish. Now that we have it, let us not prematurely choke the life out of the young thing; let it live and have its being until such time as we are ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN that it should perish. Give it a "square deal!" Beware of passion and prejudice lest our judgment be warped to our detriment. If I am not mistaken, I am much the largest taxpayer within your corporate limits.

For the present, at least, I am STRENUOUSLY OPPOSED to disincorporation.

Very sincerely yours,
C. E. THOM.

November 28, 1906.

The above from Glendale's largest tax-payer and a man of sound judgment and wide and successful business experience, is certainly worthy of thoughtful consideration by those who would blindly follow the lead of King and one or two other "trouble makers." If Captain Thom, who owns acreage that is being assessed at town lot rates, is willing to give incorporation a fair trial, those who have much smaller interests should evidence fair-mindedness in the same direction. If Glendale is to grow and become a place of importance, its citizens must encourage the investment of capital here and provide a way whereby uniform improvements can be made. Incorporation is the only way to bring about the desired results.

New Citizen and New Residence for Glendale

E. K. Grant sold his home on K St., between Fourth and Fifth Sts. on Tuesday to N. P. Harrison, who is a relative of J. C. Lennox on Verdugo road. Mr. Harrison is a recent arrival from the east and will make Glendale his home. Mr. Grant has purchased a lot in the Livingston tract, corner Second and H streets, and will at once commence construction of an eight room story-and-a-half modern residence to cost $2500. Mr. Grant is one of Glendale's most progressive young men and is doing his part in building up the town.

GOOD ADVERTISING.

This office is in receipt of a beautiful booklet setting forth the advantages of Gardena. This booklet was printed by The Gardena Reporter, and the many beautiful pictures of homes and business houses in thriving Gardena and of the flourishing orchards and walnut groves of that section, tell better than words, of the realities and possibilities of that locality for beauty and productiveness. Brother Morrill's enterprise will do much good in advertising Gardena in a favorable way to the outside world.

CLUB NOTES.

On Tuesday afternoon occurred the regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, in I. O. O. F. Hall, which had been decorated in greenery for the occasion.

Much of the regular business was laid aside on account of the program which was to follow. Several members responded to "Wayside notes," and Mrs. Lillian S. Wells gave her report as delegate to the convention of Federated Clubs held in the Ebell Club house.

Mrs. Walter C. Fraley opened the program, "Childhood verse and song," with two sweet lullabys, "Birds in the Night" and "Heigh-Baby, Ho-Baby." Mrs. Fraley is noted for her lullabys and she added to her reputation as a sweet singer that afternoon. Mrs. Fred C. Hezmalhalch followed, and the spontaneous applause that greeted the lady attested her popularity. She possesses a sweet presence, a voice of artistic culture, combined with perfect enunciation, and her selections were in exquisite taste. She is well known in Glendale, where she is loved for her sweet personality as well as for her perfect art. A vocal solo by little Blythe Monroe was a revelation to those who had not heard the child, as she possesses a voice of wonderful purity and power. Mrs. Ellen Newcomb, the only poetess and the eldest member of the club, rendered original verses from memory, "A Satisfactory Conclusion," written about the bright sayings of her little grandchildren, Masters George P. Fraley and Edward B. Newcomb.

The verses of "Twilight Dreaming" were doubly pathetic to those who knew that the dear brother about whom the words were written in the long ago, lay at that moment at the point of death. The club is very proud of its poetess, who is seventy-four years old. Miss Maynard, a talented reader, recently from Los Angeles, presented "The Little God, and Dickie," in a way that made the children present look about for the obstreperous boy who hated to go to dancing school. In her usual captivating manner, Mrs. Dr. Bryant gave two lullabys, favorite songs chosen by her boys, and was accorded the applause which always greets this recognized singer. The "Fishing Party" was a humorous bit given by Miss Evelyn Ryan, in a charming dainty manner that won much praise. Then followed "Personal experiences among the children," by Mrs. F. Gilman Taylor, a bright and original account of her days of teaching in Yankee Jim's Canyon, written in a style that bespeaks much humor and pathos, combined with real literary talent.

There were more than the usual number of new members and of guests present, and the afternoon was voted a decided success.

COMING THIS WAY RAPIDLY.

There are a number of people in Los Angeles who are looking up Glendale property for homes and for investment. On Tuesday a resident of Los Angeles bought through the firm of Hurtt and Rodgers a fine piece of Glendale property, on which he will at once build a home. For this property he paid $2,000, and declares that in ten years or less he will sell the same for business purposes for no less than $20,000.

On that same day two more residence lots were purchased from the same firm by Los Angeles capital. The purchase of 5 acres located on Fifth and A streets, has just been completed. The land will be cleaned up at once, walks and curbing put in and roads improved, making it ready for immediate sale.

These improvements, with the Wrightland tract and the new McIntyre B street tract will make this portion of the city one of the finest residence sections.

Recently Mr. M. A. Rodgers, in talking with a Huntington representative, was assured that another road would be put up to Verdugo Park in the near future.

UNDERSTANDS HIS WORK AND IS RELIABLE.

Mr. Edward M. Lynch, formerly of Oakland, but who has been located in Tropic during the past year, has established an office at his home on Ross avenue, just off the San Fernando road. Mr. Lynch is a surveyor and civil engineer of many years' experience and is a graduate in engineering from the University of California. This section is most fortunate in having a man of Mr. Lynch's ability locate here and that his ability is being appreciated in a substantial manner by our people is evidenced by the amount of work he is receiving. Among his patrons are L. C. Brand, A. L. Hawes, owner of Sagamore Hills; C. E. Stanley and J. B. Treadwell, of Forest Lawn Cemetery, Tropic.

Mr. Lynch's popularity as an engineer is well deserved, as those who have employed him here say that he is quick and absolutely correct in all his work.

Mr. Wm. Hamby, brother of Mrs. W. J. Jones, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jones at their home on J street. Mr. Hamby, who is a resident of Bishop, Inyo county, has just returned from a visit to relatives in Washington.

A pleasant affair on Sunday was a family dinner given by Mrs. Cecil C. Norton on C street, to her parents and a few friends from Hollywood. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wright and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kelly.

Miss Ida M. Waite entertained friends Thursday with a holiday dinner. In the evening several were added to the company, making enough to fill four tables, where a jolly game was enjoyed. Delicious light refreshments served bespoke the holiday season.

Work has commenced on the improving of McIntyre's B street tract. The graders are now busily engaged in leveling the tract and the cement contractor will commence work next week putting in walks and curbs. Mr. McIntyre never does things by halves and it is safe to predict that this tract will be one of the most attractive in Glendale when he puts it on the market.

Among the guests who blew into Glendale Friday with the sand storm were friends of Mrs. L. A. Monroe, from Sacramento. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atkinson. Saturday they enjoyed the balloon route in spite of the wind, and on Sunday visited Redlands and San Bernardino. Monday the party were entertained at Pasadena and on Tuesday in Glendale. They departed well pleased with their visit, declaring they had had a most enjoyable time and that Glendale is the best ever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nelson have sold their home on Glendale avenue, during the past week, which they built about a year ago, and have occupied since. They bought two fine lots on C street, in the new Jones tract, located between the "Priory" and the Jones home. Contracts have been let for building a fine house, modern down to the minute, to be completed within sixty days. The plans for the new home were made almost entirely by Mrs. Nelson.

A daintily-appointed Thanksgiving dinner was that given by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hartsough on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at their home on B street. The color scheme of decoration was carried out in masses of pink carnations and trailing greenery, which accorded well with the dainty pink and white of the china used. Covers were laid for fourteen. Aside from relatives, of Glendale, the guests included friends and kin from Los Angeles. Music formed one of the diversions of the evening.

An Interesting Meeting

On Thursday afternoon, Nov. 22nd, Mrs. Orman Oak entertained the ladies of St. Mark's Guild in her charmingly attractive home on Second street. The rooms had been brightened with chrysanthemums and carnations, Japanese lanterns and a profusion of fans. The screen surrounding the porch opening upon the court was hidden in pepper boughs, and the porch was a bower of hanging ferns and palms. Mrs. Dr. Hunt, the president, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Miss Pallister, of St. Paul's pro-cathedral, Los Angeles. The ladies listened to this cultured speaker with breathless interest while she discussed her topic—"The Value of Church-worship." Step by step she gave the story of one's church-life, beginning with the time when the infant is baptized, which is the first step of church-life for the tiny feet. Soon, so quickly is childhood passed, then comes the time for confirmation, and the child takes up its christian life with heart filled with sweet zeal. Time pursues its flight, and the import step is taken that leads to the altar for the marriage service. So pass the years, and one day the last step is taken, and I am the resurrection and the Life," closes the church-life. Thus it is well, from the cradle to the grave to so live that the world is better because you have lived. Opportunities are thick about us, and it will help us if we realize the beauty of our Lord's prayer.

Who feels the deep significance of "Our Father" cannot step far astray, and the first sweet lesson in the value of church-worship is learned.

At the close of her remarks, the speaker was surrounded by the ladies, eager to come into personal touch with a mind so beautiful.

So interesting was the address, that an effort will be made to have Miss Pallister again meet with St. Mark's Guild in the near future.

R. W. Hammond and family moved to San Diego, on Monday.

J. B. Treadwell who has been to San Francisco on a business trip, has returned home.

Miss Ollie Thomas, from Arizona, was recently the guest of Miss Margaret Kirkby, Lomita Park.

Mr. D. H. Imler has returned from Arizona, where he is interested in marble quarries and mining.

The San Fernando planing mill which was almost torn to pieces during the late high wind storm, has been repaired, and work there is resumed.

Mr. Logan is having the old Richardson hall, over the Tropic meat market, overhauled and rebuilt. When completed, there will be six rooms; offices and housekeeping rooms. An office will be occupied by the Tropic Water Co.

Mr. Peter Gabaig brought to Mr. Logan's store a huge pumpkin weighing 74 pounds, which was raised on the Los Felos ranch, belonging to Mr. Griffith. This was considered large enough to furnish Mr. Logan with enough Thanksgiving pie.

There were Thanksgiving exercises in the Tropic schools on Wednesday afternoon, consisting of music and recitations. The school is so overcrowded that at present the children are so divided that part of them come to the morning session and the rest to the afternoon session.

Mr. J. W. Spear a month ago sold his home, the old Fischer place on Glendale and Laurel, and moved to Texas. He has returned to stay "in the best spot on earth," and at present is living in one of the Davenport houses. He will build in the near future. His son, J. T. Spear and wife, from Arizona, have come to Tropic to make their home.

A jolly Thanksgiving affair was the dinner given to relatives and a few friends from Lomita Park and Glendale, by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harvey, at "Tsaltia," their home on Tropic avenue. The table was beautified with a mass of pale yellow chrysanthemums, candles and hand painted china and cut glass, the most interesting decorations being a large turkey at either end of the table, a prize being offered the most artistic carver. Bright quips and jests and lively music furnished the fun. The dinner occurred at six o'clock, and covers were laid for twelve.

Don't forget that life will not be complete without a pair of those Red School House shoes sold by Noble Brothers.
